Please submit your nomination by February 14.

The Hugh Wallace Award for Outstanding Citizen

The dedication of longtime WAAODA Board Member Hugh Wallace to the AODA field made a lasting impression on AODA programs, services and policies throughout the state of Wisconsin. This award in his name goes to the citizen who has shown outstanding dedication to furthering AODA prevention, treatment or recovery efforts within the past year.

Outstanding Professional

This award goes to the professional who has demonstrated a significant contribution in bridging the corrections, mental health and AODA fields.

Outstanding Program

This award is presented to the prevention or treatment program that has had a significantly positive impact on its clients and/or community, demonstrated by outcome-oriented services.

Outstanding Volunteer

This award is presented to the volunteer whose contributions of both time and talent to an organization have made a difference in his or her community.

President's Award

This award is chosen by the President of the WAAODA Board of Directors.

Advocacy Award

This is a new award presented to a group or individual leading the struggle for social and legislative change supporting AODA prevention, treatment and recovery in Wisconsin.
